WINCHESTER, VA., November 7 .-An unusually large number of persons were injured this week in automobile accidents on or near the Shenandoah Valley Pike between Win-chester and Staunton, in spite of the repeated warnings given by pike officials, and also by the police authorities. One of the most serious happened near Edinburg, when an automobile occupied by Payton Hulvey and his sisters, Misses Sallie, and Nina Hulvey, and Miss Pauline Lauck, all of Harrisonburg; Ty Haun, chauffeur, of the same place, and Professor Robert Bowers, of Lacey Springs, left the pike near the Narrow Passage Bridge. turned turtle twice and then rolled down, an embankment, taking all the occupants with it. The young men and women were severely cut and bruised, and have since been under the care of doctors. Several are thought to have been internally intured, in addition to having some of their bones fractured. Haun's leg was

While Harry Butler, of Harrisonburg, was motoring in his own car near Fort Defiance the same day he collided with a Baltimore man's machine. Both men were very painfully hurt, and the cars badly damaged.

Walter Rhodes, of Lacey Springs, motored down a hill at a lively cilp and crashed into a fence, suffering numerous cuts and bruises and damage

A somewhat similar mishap occurred o David T. Conger, of Waynesboro, and his car was put out of commission. and his car was put out of commission.

The authorities of Middletown, Frederick County, are having much trouble with local and visiting motorists, many of whom insist upon running their cars throught the town so fast that it is extremely dangerous for people, to cross the main street. Half a dozen or more were arrested in one day, and stiff fines were imposed. The Mayor told the visitors they were always welcome, but they should respect the law. Two New Yorkers who arrived here a day or two ago from Williamsport, Md., on a motorcycle were hurled from their machine about twenty-five feet upon striking a huge chunk of concrete that had been thrown into the street by a Winchester citizen, and damages amounting to $18 were collected by the tourists.

HUNTING SEASON BRINGS

MANY SHOOTING ACCIDENTS

Since the hunting season pened the first of the week, the woods have been full of hunters in quest of game, and t is reported to be more plentiful than for several years. The law governing he killing of game birds and animals, however, is very stringent, and only small quantities are being exhibited by sportsmen. With the opening of the game season, the accidental wounding of hunters is also reported from many ns. Joseph M. Fisher, of Stras-got between Omar Fitzsimmons rabbit while they were hunting and a rabbit while they were hunting in a field, and the shot from Fitzs!m-mons's gun took effect in Fisher's face, just below his left eye. His condition is reported to be quite serious. Till-man Shumate, of Millwood, Clarke County, is in Winchester Memorial Hospital with an ugly looking wound in his forearm, caused by a gun exploding unexpectedly. Maurice Lake, of Winchester, was peppered with shot ploding unexpectedly. Maurice Lake, of Winchester, was peppered with shot a few days ago, and doctors have been picking them out of him ever since. Forest fices are also reported from humerous localities, all caused by hunters dropping matches or cigarettes

FINE BUSINESS IN SIGHT FOR APPLE GROWERS

The apple crop of Frederick County has been picked and packed, and it is conservatively estimated that the pro-duction of the orchards of this county was in the neighborhool of 300,000 barrels this year. The movement has been unprecedented, and a train of from forty to fifty cars is no uncommon sight. A great many apples in barrels and boxes, however, have been placed in cold storage here and in neighboring towns for shipment later. Many of the growers sold at lower prices than usual rather than run the rish of hold-ing their fruit, while those who placed their apples in cold storage were much their apples in cold storage were much selited to-day, when a message came from New York giving assurances of higher prices. The message stated that the great crop of Western New York btate, the strongest competitor the Virginia grower has, is melting away rapidly and the cold tsorages there will took he will your quantities have been not be full. Vast quantities have been shipped in bulk, and trainloads of bar-reled apples have been sent out to the Middle West at $1.50 per barrel. The dination, it is declared, is now a great situation, it is declared, is now a great deal better than at any other time this fall on barreled apples.

Mrs. J. P. Sampsell, of Stephens City; her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Stutzman, of Highspire, Pa., and the latter's sister, Mrs. Sadle McDonald, of Connellaville, Pa., were hurled headlong from a run-tway team near Stephens City this week and were severely injured. susweek and were severely injured, sus-laining a great many cuts and bruises. while Mrs. Stutzman also suffered a compound fracture of the hip joint. The horse they were driving became rightened and ran madly down a long

The people of Winchester have reponded very generously with cash, dothing, knit goods and articles for Thristmas gifts for the Belgian suferers. The movement here was startumber of boxes and crates containing he gifts have been forwarded to brooklyn, where they will be loaded in the Christmas ship, which sails for the other side next week.

To Rescue of Roads.

A dispatch from Atlanta says: The tailroad Commission of the State of feorgia, realizing the iserious financial redicament in which the railroads are typesent, has decided to come to the escue of the transportation interests; tide them over their dilemma. The hairman of the commission in a letter; the general gounsel of the Southern alliway states that, owing to the marrial dacrease in the revenues of carrers, the Georgia Railroad Commission ill not now nor until the present nancial situation is relieved, impose yon any of the roads subject to its trisdiction any expenditures for new ations, warehouses, terminal facilies, etc., except such as are absolutely excessary.

If the railway commissions of other face, etc., except such as are absolutely excessary.

If the railway commissions of other face, will follow the example of Georgia, they will greatly aid in saving the ansportation companies from the ansportation companies from the sarring them in the face, especially the roads in the South.
